Wisdom: God's Omniscience

“He hath made the earth by his power, he hath established the world by his wisdom...”

–Jeremiah 10:12

God created the earth by means of His Omnipotence, which is His All-powerful ability. He literally caused all things to come into being, from non-existence into existence, by His own Power. Not only did He cause them to exist: He continues to sustain their existence by that same unchanging Power.

However, He established the world (which is all the systems that operate, and operate on, the earth) by His Omniscience, which is His All-knowing wisdom. From natural laws such as gravity, the laws of thermodynamics, metamorphosis, and photosynthesis, to cultural structures such as family, professions, government, and the arts: all of these – in their purity – are the outworking of the Wisdom of God on display.

“The LORD by wisdom hath founded the earth; by understanding hath he established the heavens.

– Proverbs 3:19

Wisdom: God's Divine Attribute

Wisdom is one of God's eternal attributes. An attribute of God is, ultimately, not just "what God has" – it is Who God is. For example, one of God's attributes is Love. God does not just have love: God IS Love, the Source of all love. The essence of what can be said about God can be said about His Love. God does give love. But He gives out of His own Being. His Giving proceeds from His Living. Even so, Wisdom is an attribute of God. God IS Wisdom, the Source of all wisdom. Listen to Wisdom speak in Proverbs Chapter 8:

"Doth not wisdom cry? and understanding put forth her voice? ... 'The LORD possessed me in the beginning of His way, before His works of old. I was set up from everlasting, from the beginning, or ever the earth was. ... Then I was by Him, as one brought up with Him: and I was daily His delight, rejoicing always before Him; rejoicing in the habitable part of His earth; and my delights were with the sons of men.' " – Proverbs 8:1, 22-23, 30-31

Wisdom: A Life-Necessity

According to Scripture, no one can successfully navigate any aspect of life without wisdom. Whether personal or interpersonal, private or public, informal or official, natural or spiritual, all aspects of living require wisdom. No one accomplishes lasting achievement or gains authentic fulfillment apart from it. Families and nations, ministries, industries, and entrepreneurships --- if they succeed, it is to the extent that wisdom is applied.

"Get wisdom, get understanding: forget it not; neither decline from the words of my mouth. Forsake her not, and she shall preserve thee: love her, and she shall keep thee. Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom: and with all thy getting get understanding. Exalt her, and she shall promote thee: she shall bring thee to honour, when thou dost embrace her. She shall give to thine head an ornament of grace: a crown of glory shall she deliver to thee. Hear, O my son, and receive my sayings; and the years of thy life shall be many." – Proverbs 4:5-10

Wisdom: Skill

The word frequently used in the Old Testament that is translated “wisdom” is the Hebrew term “hokmah” (or “chokmah”), and it literally means “skill.” What is “skill”?

1. The ability to use one's knowledge effectively and readily in execution or performance.
2. Dexterity or coordination, especially in the execution of learned physical tasks.
3. ...a learned power of doing something competently: a developed aptitude or ability.”

“SKILL.” (Merriam–Webster Dictionary. Online. 1.11.2026.)

A working definition of wisdom, based upon its widest usage in the Bible, is as follows: “Wisdom is the ‘how’ and the ‘how-to’ ability of God, for successful living.”

(Successful living is the fulfillment of God's purpose. Unfortunately, some people take God's ability and attempt to use it against God's purpose. It always fails in the end.)

Wisdom is the apprehension of “how” a being or a thing exists and operates, and “how to” optimize that entity and / or how to optimize interaction with that entity. Wisdom, this apprehensive grasp of “how” and “how-to,” applies to all areas of reality, from the micro- to the macro- levels of life. An example of God giving people “how” and “how-to” skill is the team that He identified for Moses in order that these men might build the Tabernacle.

“And Moses said unto the children of Israel, See, the LORD hath called by name Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah; And he hath filled him with the spirit of God, in wisdom, in understanding, and in knowledge, and in all manner of workmanship; And to devise curious works, to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass, and in the cutting of stones, to set them, and in carving of wood, to make any manner of cunning work. And he hath put in his heart that he may teach, both he, and Aholiab, the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan. Them hath he filled with wisdom of heart, to work all manner of work, of the engraver, and of the cunning workman, and of the embroiderer, in blue, and in purple, in scarlet, and in fine linen, and of the weaver, even of them that do any work, and of those that devise cunning work.” – Exodus 35:30–35

Pray for Wisdom

If we ask God for wisdom, He promises to grant it.

“If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him.”

– James 1:5

God's Wisdom Is Resident Within You

Ultimately, if Christ lives within us, we have the wisdom of God within us, now.

“But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption...” – I Corinthians 1:30

In this Consecration, we will seek and ask of God
His Wisdom for managing and excelling in all aspects of life. It is for His Glory and for our Good.

“He sent a man before them, even Joseph, who was sold for a servant: whose feet they hurt with fetters: he was laid in iron: until the time that his word came: the word of the LORD tried him. The king sent and loosed him; even the ruler of the people, and let him go free. DIVINE WISDOM ESSENTIALS

Wisdom for Preserving and Vindicating Legacy

SOLOMON

“...A wise son maketh a glad father: but a foolish son [is] the heaviness of his mother.” – Proverbs 10:1

“Moreover thou knowest also what Joab the son of Zeruiah did to me, and what he did to the two captains of the hosts of Israel, unto Abner the son of Ner, and unto Amasa the son of Jether, whom he slew, and shed the blood of war in peace, and put the blood of war upon his girdle that was about his loins, and in his shoes that were on his feet. Do therefore according to thy wisdom, and let not his hoar head go down to the grave in peace. But shew kindness unto the sons of Barzillai the Gileadite, and let them be of those that eat at thy table: for so they came to me when I fled because of Absalom thy brother. 8 And, behold, [thou hast] with thee Shimei the son of Gera, a Benjamite of Bahurim, which cursed me with a grievous curse in the day when I went to Mahanaim: but he came down to meet me at Jordan, and I swore to him by the LORD, saying, I will not put thee to death with the sword. 9 Now therefore hold him not guiltless: for thou art a wise man, and knowest what thou oughtest to do unto him; but his hoar head bring thou down to the grave with blood.’ “ – I Kings 2:5–9

Wisdom To Save A Nation Under Threat

ESTHER

“Then Esther bade them return Mordecai this answer: go, gather together all the Jews that are present in Shushan, and fast ye for me, and neither eat nor drink three days, night or day: I also and my maidens will fast likewise; and so will I go in unto the king, which is not according to the law: and if I perish, I perish.” – Esther 4:15–16

“Now it came to pass on the third day, that Esther put on her royal apparel, and stood in the inner court of the king's house, over against the king's house: and the king sat upon his royal throne in the royal house, over against the gate of the house. And it was so, when the king saw Esther the queen standing in the court, that she obtained favour in his sight: and the king held out to Esther the golden sceptre that was in his hand. So Esther drew near, and touched the top of the sceptre. Then said the king unto her, What wilt thou, queen Esther? and what is thy request? it shall be even given thee to the half of the kingdom.” – Esther 5:1–3

“Doth not wisdom cry? and understanding put forth her voice?... ‘Riches and honour are with me; yea, durable riches and righteousness... For whoso findeth me findeth life, and shall obtain favour of the LORD.’ “ – Proverbs 8:1, 18, 35

DIVINE WISDOM ESSENTIALS

Wisdom for Leadership

JOSHUA / MESSIAH

“Doth not wisdom cry? and understanding put forth her voice?...‘By me kings reign, and princes decree justice. By me princes rule, and nobles, even all the judges of the earth... Riches and honour are with me; yea, durable riches and righteousness. ... For whoso findeth me findeth life, and shall obtain favour of the LORD.’” – Proverbs 8:1, 15–16, 18, 35

“And Joshua the son of Nun was full of the spirit of wisdom; for Moses had laid his hands upon him: and the children of Israel hearkened unto him, and did as the LORD commanded Moses.” – Deuteronomy 34:9

“And there shall come forth a rod out of the stem of Jesse, and a Branch shall grow out of his roots: and the spirit of the LORD shall rest upon Him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the LORD...” – Isaiah 11:1–2

Wisdom By Association

“He that walketh with wise men shall be wise: but a companion of fools shall be destroyed.” – Proverbs 13:20

Wisdom For Fulfillment of Purpose

“Without counsel purposes are disappointed: but in the multitude of counsellors they are established.” – Proverbs 15:22

WARNING: Know The Difference Between Divine Wisdom and Demonic Wisdom

“Who is a wise man and endued with knowledge among you? let him shew out of a good conversation his works with meekness of wisdom. But if ye have bitter envying and strife in your hearts, glory not, and lie not against the truth. This wisdom descendeth not from above, but is earthly, sensual, devilish. For where envying and strife is, there is confusion and every evil work. But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easy to be intreated, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy. And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace of them that make peace.” – James 3:13–18

THE BOOK OF PROVERBS

It is the quintessential book of wisdom in the Bible. More specifically, it is a Book of Royal Wisdom – by a king (Solomon), who was fathered and taught by a king (David), to a king in the making (Rehoboam, and other upcoming leaders). It is a Leadership Manual.

The first day the Winter Consecration is January 13th. We will read Chapter 13 together, and we will proceed throughout the Book, reading at least one Chapter daily.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR CONSECRATION

These instructions are for Winter Consecration 2026; however, they contain general principles that may be applied to any consecration at any time of year.

A. The Consecration Schedule

1. It officially begins Tuesday, January 13, 2026.
2. It officially ends on Wednesday, February 11, 2026.

B. The Corporate Fasting Schedule

1. At least sixteen (16) of the days should be FULL fast days. A standard fast day should be reckoned from the time one arises in the morning until 6:00 P.M. (for the experienced) or until 4:00 P.M. (for the inexperienced). And there are some individuals who may, indeed, fast for one or more twenty-four-hour days at a time.
2. At least 5 days should be partial fast days (length: your discretion).

This will result in $(16 + 5 = 21)$ twenty-one fast days.

More fasting is welcome, according to God's will and yours.

CLARIFYING CONSECRATION

Consecration is the DEDICATION of something or someone TO THE PURPOSE OF GOD.

This Consecration is a season in which to especially dedicate ourselves afresh unto the Lord. At the beginning of this New Year, by offering the “firstfruits of our time”, we commit the whole of the year to the fulfillment of Kingdom Purpose.

We petition for the Word and the Spirit to flow freely throughout the earth, and for godly success in every aspect of our collective and individual existence. Whenever there is consecration, there is a greater manifestation of the Grace of God.

TWO BASIC ASPECTS OF OUR CONSECRATION: THE ATTITUDE AND THE ACT

The attitude of consecration is what God values most, above how many days one fasts or how many chapters of the Bible one reads. These outward ACTS have real meaning when they are the expression of an inward ATTITUDE. When one humbles himself/herself to God, this disposition pleases Christ, for it is the “mind” that He had on earth.

Perhaps the “highest-praise-word” is “Hallelujah”, but the highest praise is “YES”: for when one totally surrenders to God, he is not just “doing” praise, but BECOMING a praise.

The ACT of consecration should be the fruit of an ATTITUDE of consecration. The ACT always includes reading/meditation in the Word of God and prayers of all kinds. It often includes fasting and other acts of self-denial.

Philippians 2:5–11

“Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus: who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God: but made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men: and being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross. Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name: that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth; and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.”¹⁵

THE THREE DIMENSIONS OF CONSECRATION

CORPORATE (INSTANTANEOUS)

Every believer is set apart into the Body of Christ, for God's purpose. GOD Himself does this.

I Corinthians 12:13 | I Peter 2:9 | Isaiah 43:6-7

CONTINUAL (LIFETIME – PERSONAL)

The lifestyle of the Christian is one in which every moment is lived in God-consciousness, devoted to His purpose, whether in a secular or a sacred setting. The individual BELIEVER does this.

I Corinthians 10:31 | I Thessalonians 5:17

CALLED (SPECIAL SEASON)

There are designated times when Christians “come aside” to place special emphasis on the Lord and their relationship with Him. These seasons include intercession for nations, communities, and families. The CHURCH – collectively – does this.

II Chronicles 20:3-4 | Joel 2:15-17

WHAT IS FASTING?

Fasting is the voluntary abstinence from food for spiritual reasons — denying the natural appetites while asking God to deepen and fill the spiritual appetites.

FASTING . . .

1. undergirds faith and prayer. (Matthew 17:21)
2. prepares us for supernatural works. (Mark 9:1-8; 14-29; Luke 4:1-2,14)
3. blesses the nations and the church. (Joel 1:1-14; 2:1,12)
4. disciplines our emotions and our bodies. (Psalm 35:13 with Isaiah 58:5; Romans 12:1-2; I Corinthians 9:25-27)
5. enables us to break oppression. (Isaiah 58:6-7,10; Luke 4:18-19, Acts 10:38)
6. makes us light in the dark world. (Isaiah 58:8)
7. provides divine health. (Isaiah 58:8)
8. is a part of ministry unto The Lord. (Luke 2:37; Acts 13: 1)
9. accompanies repentance, and may turn away divine judgment. (II Samuel 12:15; Jonah 3:4-10)
10. positions us to receive divine revelation. (Daniel 10:1-3; Luke 2:36-38)

ABSOLUTE FASTING

The lifestyle of the Christian is one in which every moment is lived in God-consciousness, devoted to His purpose, whether in a secular or a sacred setting. Absolute fasting seems to be the Bible norm when the term “fast” or “fasting”, “fasted” is used. When we use the term “fast” or “fasting”, we are referring to absolute fasting.

OTHER CONSECRATION SACRIFICES

Modified Fasting or “Sacrifice”

Some people abstain from food while still drinking fruit/vegetable juices and/or water. This has medical benefits, but it is not clearly mandated or exemplified in Scripture. Certainly, it can be a legitimate sacrifice unto the Lord, but it is NOT what is referred to in the Bible as “fasting”.

“No Pleasant Bread” Sacrifice

This sacrifice was undertaken by the prophet Daniel (Daniel 10: 1-3, 12-14b). Some Bible students believe he did continue to eat, but ate less desirable foods. Some contemporary teachers also teach a “Daniel Fast.” Other teachers believe Daniel's fast was “absolute.” We don't argue! This consecration involves various sacrifices, but the fasting part is simple – abstinence from food and all drink other than water. We deal with exceptional situations on the next page.

EXTENDED SACRIFICE

All 30 days should involve some ongoing extended sacrifice unto God: either the same sacrifice for all the days or different sacrifices for various sets of days. Whereas your absolute fast will be for limited amounts of time, you should consider giving a more extensive sacrifice even when you are not officially “fasting”, such as giving up a certain food, drink, or non-health based recreational activity.

For example, one might omit eating sweets for all 30 days, even when not fasting. Or, one might omit some other food type for one week — and omit another type the next week.

ENTERTAINMENT

All 30 days should involve minimal television viewing (limited to essentials such as news, or programs [along with DVD's, CD's, mp3s, mp4s or other media] that have spiritually edifying content). The same is true of digital/social media (e.g. Youtube videos). Christian television may be beneficial, and the news may be necessary, but in all things we should remember the Lord. We should use our praise and worship music, ministry CDs / DVDs, etc. to keep our hearts attuned to the things of God. All other kinds of entertainment, such as movies and such, should be postponed until after the consecration. (Our entertainment should reflect godliness at all times, even when there is not a special consecration. Therefore, the Consecration is a good time to evaluate what we call entertainment, and to eliminate those things that distract us from God's purpose and truly healthy minds as well as bodies: this is another aspect of discernment.)

NOTE: Those parents / guardians with children in academic, athletic, or other scholastic and developmental activities must continue to support them.

NOTE: Physical exercise and other health activities should continue as appropriate. However, any recreational activity purely by choice, purely for natural enjoyment, should be denied throughout the consecration. You may need to decide whether you will exercise while fasting, or before-and-after.

PHYSICAL EXERTION

A person whose job is extremely physically strenuous may choose to fast not as long, but more often, and / or to sacrifice other things.

Remember: everybody can give God something.

Also remember: if your sacrifice means nothing to you --- if it is not YOUR BEST, from YOUR HEART --- it means nothing to God. This is not about a marathon: it is about putting God first in a special way for a special season.

SPECIAL CIRCUMSTANCES

Expectant mothers should not fast. They should deny themselves in some other way, a way that does not potentially have a harmful effect on her or the unborn child. They will have opportunities in the future.

Females should time their fasting not to occur at their “time of the month”. Individual sisters vary with regard to how much eating it takes for them during this time, but they definitely need proper nutrition. They should sacrifice themselves to the Lord in other areas.

Those on a medication regimen that requires regular eating should continue eating as they have been instructed by their physicians. However, they could choose the “no pleasant bread” model, in which they eat nutritious food, but not their most enjoyable, most delicious food choices.

The married should consult one another for “consent” in the various intimate aspects of their relationship as to how much time they will give to the Consecration exclusively. (I Corinthians 7:3–5) This means physical intimacy, but it would apply to other areas as well. For example, if one’s schedule for breakfast, lunch, or dinner will be temporarily changed, the person who prepares meals needs to be informed.

PRESENT YOUR BODIES

Fasting wisely is beneficial for the body, even medical professionals now tell us. The Word told us thousands of years earlier, Isaiah 58:8 “Then shall thy light break forth as the morning, and thine health shall spring forth speedily: and thy righteousness shall go before thee...” Determine what you will do to complement the fasting (such as appropriate exercise, eating well when NOT fasting, etc.) that will further enable you to enhance your health, presenting God a vessel unto honor – your body for His glory.
